Job Title: Nemeton TV Sport Broadcasting Apprentice in association with MG ALBA

Contract Type: Fixed Term – Full time

Base: Glasgow, Scotland, plus work experience in Waterford, Ireland

Closing Date: 5th October 2018

Pay: £14,500 pa – leading to academic qualification

Location: Glasgow/Waterford

Application Questions

We ask 3 competency based questions in the initial application form and candidates submit a CV as part of their application:

1. Motivation for Application

We are looking for people with a commitment to and passion for media. In no more than 150 words, please tell us why you want to join this scheme and what an apprenticeship in the media industry might offer you.

2. Resilience

We're looking for self-starters who can get things done. Think of a time at work, school or in your personal life when you have taken the initiative to develop yourself or learn something new. In no more than 150 words, tell us what you achieved, what were the challenges and why are you proud of yourself for achieving it.

3. Creativity

BBC ALBA's sport output wants to appeal to a modern and diverse audience. In no more than 150 words, tell us an idea for a half time feature that you would like to see shown on BBC ALBA's sport coverage, which has been influenced by your own life experience and would appeal to YOU.

Recruitment Process Detail

Following assessment of the situational judgement questionnaires we will invite a number of candidates to do a numeracy, literacy and language test (set by the college we're working in collaboration with).

From that we will invite people to be interviewed and we will identify the suitable candidate.

In order to be eligible for the Nemeton TV Sport Apprenticeship scheme, you must be 18 – 24 in order to apply as Skills Development Scotland will only fund places for people in that age range.

Also, candidates are not eligible for the scheme if they already have, or expect to attain a bachelor's degree, an HND, a level 3 BTEC or higher before the apprenticeship start date.
